Conojo, Ralph 10/16/69

Recently I have written of a number of names that are not exactly as my most undependable New Orleans informant gave them to me but are so closex the similarity cannot be ignored. Another of these is Ralph Conojo. I have added his name to the list about whom I plan to inquire at the Archives tomorrow. Meanwhile, if you know anything at all about him, I'd be real interested.

His name was given Sciambra by James J. Plaine (memo 10/1/68) as that of Castro's personal pilot.

Were I to conjecture, I'd wonder if this could be a Howard Davis ~~xxxxxxxxx~~ alias.
